

Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Anthropology (revised November 8, 2013)

Total credits: Thirty-three (33) hours in Anthropology _____

Four "core" courses (12 credits):

____ ANTH 021
____ ANTH 024
____ ANTH 026
____ ANTH 028

Two 100-level courses in two different subfields (6 credits):

Choose two of the following

ANTH ____ Archaeology (ANTH 104, ANTH 130, 134, 135, 160, 161, 164, 167, 188)
ANTH ____ Biological Anthropology (ANTH 140, 172, 174, 187, 189)
ANTH ____ Linguistic Anthropology (ANTH 172, 176 (may repeat if different content), 178)
ANTH ____ Cultural Anthropology (ANTH 102, 103, 123, 125, 151, 152, 153, 155, 160, 161, 162, 165, 166, 169, 172, 174, 179, 180, 181, 183, 184, 185, 187, 189)

The department will indicate which subfield requirements ANTH 195/196 courses fulfill.*

Three additional courses at the 100- or 200-level (9 credits):

ANTH ____
ANTH ____
ANTH ____

Two courses at the 200-level (6 credits):

Only 3 credits from ANTH 200 will count toward this requirement.*

ANTH 2____
ANTH 2____

Additional Notes

*ISSP thesis (ANTH 190) and internship (ANTH 201) courses will not count toward the 33 hours required for the anthropology major.

*Students can count only 3 credits out of ANTH 197/198, 297/298, or HON 202/203 towards the major.

*Courses will only apply these courses toward the major requirements if they are taken as a block of three credits in a single semester.

*Students planning to pursue a graduate degree are encouraged to take an appropriate mixture of methods and theory courses at the 200-level.